Will the research only involve activities under any of the categories below?

1. Research on normal educational practices.
2. Research on interactions that only involves surveys, interviews, educational tests, or observation of public behavior.
4. Secondary research on identifiable data for which additional consent is not required.
5. Research supported by a federal department or agency that researches a public benefit or service program.
6. A taste and food quality evaluation and/or a consumer acceptance study.
7. Obtaining broad consent to keep identifiable data for potential use in other future research studies.
8. Research on identifiable data that was previously collected via broad consent.

Will prisoners be sought out as participants?

No

Yes

Yes

Your study is likely to be reviewed at the expedited or full board level